

COMMUNICATION PRACTICE

brainstorm on Post-Its, then group into affinities

Listen...then listen some more

compassion and empathy

Speak up, others may think the same idea as you.

Balance: speak-listen

Consider core values

Good practice for me to listen - and I DID learn stuff!

Don't assume

Don't hesitate to contribute even if you hesitate you WILL be voluntold actually keep in touch with other groups and players in my region

Think before you speak

Please be aware that your actions can affect how a person feels. We are all participants no matter where we come from or what we look like.

Cross-pollination

Stay curious

Step up (I'm talking), Step up (I'm listening)

Keep in mind the good of the group/community

Awareness of cultural and gender influences and listening

Listen to what others say - they may have a perspective you've never considered empathy session before brainstorm

Post-It notes rock! [on Post-It: "Totally"]

Let your voice be heard and your ideas benefit from the input of others

Align thoughts/voice/action!

Keep your yap shut and ears open.

All the practices that empowered/enabled everyone to express opinions!

Check ego at the door.

GREAT IDEA

self-sustaining

To use my skill set to help move things along.

Encouraging and support graduating collegiate players (YES!)

Use of more tech

Commitment to understand another's point of view so as to advocate for it in meeting/brainstorm

Kickstarter/crowdsourcing funding

Membership structure

- ensures revenue line item
- encourages sense of "team/community"
- sliding scale encourages participation

"Representing" someone different from yourself gives you a new perspective

TCA

Scholarships!

Capture this energy

Pledge $ between now -> 12/31/13

Support collegiate students financially to attend TCA

Universal and equal opportunity to grow and contribute

Taiko outreach

Nurturing the long-time Taikoist/Masters' Retreat Teachers

Involve subgroups like youth players and collegiate

Hire paid staff: move major decision-making to staff; board for oversight

scholarships = :) <3

Include collegiate groups in TCA governance

Time to share insights gained is important (and document)

One 2 One taiko buddies/mentors (year-round)

Neutrality (THIS)

Transparency (THIS)

Remember the non-tech using people

NATC Leaders' Retreat/Recognition (Ditto) (Ditto) (YES!)

Network, connect, advocate for others

open access

greater personal social connection

Stay flexible and you don't get bent out of shape.

PERSONAL INSIGHT

Taiko peeps are more awesome than imagined.

WOW. So many MINDS. So much EXPERIENCE!

To communicate the TCA mission to everyone

In addition to the huge variety of ideas, there is a great deal of consensus on desires for the future. (Ditto) (Ditto Ditto) (yes.)

This will be a lot of work, but it is for a worthy and needed cause. (and Wisa, Elise, and Sue will do most of it...hahaaa!)

Core Values! :)

Lots of ideas...can we translate them into action.

Exciting - this is what the signers of the Declaration of Independence must have felt like!
tap in your potential

Being earnest can get a laugh.

Many brains make bright work. (DITTO!)

This group of people is incredibly open, dedicated, and caring.

We can reach a consensus.

People of different backgrounds but like passions can accomplish huge things.

Constantly impressed with the level of passion and intellect.

Such willingness! Never seen so much in one place.

Yes - we can! (And we will!!!)

d.school is amazing!

TCA organizational process needs to be embraced by more organizational systems!

Met some amazing, talented, strong, motivated people!

Our community is passionate and driven
To get beyond myself - perception is everything.

Momentum

it's not only what TCA can do for you, but also what you can do for TCA. share your skills, take action.

People are dedicated to make this happen

knowledge, resources are within this group

Having so many great and opposing ideas makes for great conversations that lead to action. :)

cool stuff can come from collective brainstorming

We can come together and work to make great things happen!

Realizing how much time, $ and planning is needed to put on the Conference.

Many different resources

power in numbers when listening to each other

listening = learning
